OP is the leading statewide non-profit working to prevent alcohol and drug abuse. Over the past 16 years, OP has provided drug prevention programs and treatment referral services to more than 300,000 Oregonians. Through its four 24-hour crisis lines, OP's staff and volunteers respond to more than 30,000 calls a year. These lines include confidential alcohol and drug crisis counseling and referral, suicide intervention and rescue, peer-to-peer teen outreach, and services for Spanish-speaking Oregonians.

In schools across Oregon, OP reaches elementary, middle and high school students with its drug and alcohol prevention programs. The Parents Teaching Prevention program trains parents, grandparents and other adults to teach children in kindergarten through 6th grade about the dangers of prescription drugs, alcohol, tobacco and other drugs, and how to make healthy choices. The Portland Trail Blazers and Taco Bell are proud to support Oregon Partnership.
